This is a petition alleging police harassment. Petitioners are senior citizens. According to them police is unnecessarily harassing them and their family members. Govt.Pleader on instructions submitted that a crime is registered against the son of the petitioners. But he is in abroad. Of course police can conduct investigation according to law. There is no point to harass the petitioners in the old age especially when the son is in abroad. Police to see that no harassment is caused to the petitioners though crime can be investigated according to law. If any harassment is made, petitioners can approach Judicial Magistrate to get further relief. With the above observations this writ petition is disposed of.
